

The Medieval Book Through the Lens of the Librarian

Format and Content versus Reputation and Aura

Subject

Scholars from different fields of medieval studies will share with the audience their views about the special character of the medieval book – a character that transcends the book's content and becomes visible in the environment of the library with its catalogues, bookcases, and above all in the decisions of the librarian.

Call for Papers

There is a number of slots for papers (20 minutes) and special sessions (90 minutes). Proposals should be submitted to Prof. Maarten J.F.M. Hoenen at <fidem@unibas.ch> by 30 April, 2023.
